Winery: Woodinville Wine Country, Washington

Napa and Sonoma are already overrun with large groups. So if everyone in your party is of legal drinking age, escape further north to Woodinville Wine Country just outside of Seattle. The region holds its own with more than 100 wineries and tasting rooms; standouts include Mark Ryan Winery, The Woodhouse Wine Estates, Chateau Ste. Michelle (pictured) and JM Cellars. Just be sure to make reservations for groups larger than eight. Serious aficionados can advance their knowledge by taking wine classes at Columbia Winery. Stay at Willows Lodge, a four-star property that can arrange guided wine tastings.
